

Dear Vicki and Jim

Thanks for the nice letter which came Tuesday. I hope the check reached you before the you got there. Your expenses are going to be very high while you are getting started in the house, buying furniture and every thing else so there is no hurry at all in sending us any money. I wish I could tell you to forget the whole thing. I looked up my withdrawal slips and you even had an extra hundred stanzas which you can cross off because I don't have that on my withdrawals. If I had send a check for that amount I am glad and I don't want that included. You have done such a big thing and we think both of you are the greatest. The interest rate listed was too high and we will see about that later.

Gail is home and Gregg leaves tomorrow morning. He was sick in bed the last two days but is feeling better now. Gail got a job at the Holiday Inn as a hostess. She was lucky as she will need to have something to keep her busy.

I hope your gas has been connected by now and I know how wonderful it will be when you can really start keeping house.

Tomorrow night we are going up to the cabin for the weekend.
Our weather has been perfect and I hope it lasts all summer.

We are watching a good movie on television. We went out to the Turkey House in Redmond for dinner tonight

Love,
Mom
